- Robin Morgan and her employees provide quality pet care and training services with your pet's health and safety as first priority. Every possible effort will be done to ensure your dog has a pleasant and safe stay.
- The pet owner assumes all risks and responsibility for their animal during the service term. All damage to the property of Robin Morgan during the service term is the responsibility of the animal's owner.
- All health concerns specific to the individual pet must be explained ahead of boarding time. Robin Morgan will not be responsible for pre-existing health issues.
- Owner guarantees the animal is current on all vaccines and is disease and parasite free.
- Vaccination records are provided.
- Although the best care will be provided to your animal, we must clarify the unforeseen and horrific. If there is an unfortunate circumstance and the animal's health demands quick action, veterinary care will be sought immediately. The owner authorizes Robin Morgan and her employees to have a veterinarian look at and treat the animal. The owner will be responsible for all expenses.
- In case of loss, Robin Morgan is liable only for reasonable replacement value. Liability shall in no event exceed the lesser of the current chattel value of the pet of the same species or the sum of $600.00 per animal boarded.

Owner acknowledges that unforeseen and unpreventable accidents or situations occur and assumes all risk of injury or death of the pet.

As the owner of the pet, I have read and agree to the above terms.
